The Baltimore Oratorio Orchestra of thirty-four pieces, under the leadership of Professor Fritz Gaul, will add largely to the excellence of the concerts.

SING HYMN OF PRAISE.

The Wednesday Club will be represented by their chorus of 175 voices, and Mr. Arthur Serivenor, the club's director, will have entire charge of the presentation of both programmes. Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" will be the great chorul feature, and the programmes will be made up of choral works from oratorios, grand chorunes, and lighter part songs, the whole interspersed with solos, duets, and tries by the artists specially engaged.

The stage will be converted into a perfect bower of beauty, the ladies and gentlemen of the chorus being ranged on either side of the orchestra, which will be situated in the centre of the stage. An immense gounding-board will be placed at the back and overhead on the stage, and, lighted by electric lights, which will be shaded with tinted Japanese lanterns, the whole will produce a brilliant and breaks office. ROSTER OF THE CLUB. The present officers of the club are Mr.

H. T. Meloney, president; Mr. Eugene Jones, secretary and treasurer; Mr. Arthur Scrivener, director, and it is due to the earnest and vigorous efforts of these gentlemen, ably assisted by the Executive Committee, that the club offers such a creditable festival for this season. Following is a list of the honorary members

Indications of a Stiff Fight. (Rockingham Register.)

-Kathleen R. Wheeler in "Monthly Il-lustrator,"

There are indications of a stiff fight in the Tenth District of Virginia for the Democratic congressional nomination. The free-silver Democrats of the eastern counties of the district are inclined to draw the line on Congressman Tucker on the financial issue, and Senator Echols, of Staunton, is regarded as an active candidate for the nomination. Senator H. D. Flood, of Appomattox, who was a candidate two years ago, has not post-tively decided whether or not he will run. The chances are that he will enter the race.
